

MEITENKAI FAIR

銘店会

Meitenkai represents brands with a rich history in producing premium food. Head down to the Meitenkai Fair to experience the traditional food culture of Japan.

京料理 美濃吉

MINOKICHI

The Minokichi was founded in 1716 as one of the eight licensed restaurants to save fresh water fishes authorized by Shogunate's Kyoto Administration and it has always been making a history of Kyoto cuisine.

TAI SHABU NABE
500g
$28.50

UDON NO SUKI
600g
$21.90

Serving Suggestion

AKASAKA KAKIYAMA

Established in Tokyo in 1971, Akasaka Kakiyama specialises in Okaki, the traditional Japanese rice cracker delicately flavoured with soy sauce or salt.

Akasaka Kakiyama uses Shin Taisho Brand Mochigome, the pride of Toyama and the best sticky rice in Japan.

TACHIBUKURO KEICHO SEAWEEED/
SOY SAUCE/SESAME
9pcs
$9.90

A LA KASHIKO
18pcs
$16.50

十勝あんのサザエ

SAZAE SHOKUHIN

Established in 1973 in Nishinomiya, Hyogo Prefecture, Ohagi (rice balls) were made by Sazae's founder's mother for its employees and children. The large-sized Ohagi quickly gained customers' attention and they sold out immediately when introduced for sales. Since then, Ohagi has become one of Sazae's signature products.

TOKACHI OHAGI
110g x 2pcs
$4.50

錦松梅

KINSHOBAI

Kinshobai was founded in 1932 in Tokyo by its founder who was a gourmand. Particular about the taste of furikake, he spent many years perfecting his own recipe in Edo style, which has delighted the palates of everyone from children to the elderly, not to mention gourmets.

FURIKAKE
170g
$17.90

FURIKAKE IN ARITA
PORCELAIN
90g
$26.90

土井忠ば漬本舗

DOI SHIBAZUKE HONPO

Established in 1901, Doi Shibazuke Honpo specialises in shibazuke (pickles), a traditional food that has been enjoyed by the people of Ohara, Kyoto, for a thousand years. Its signature Shibazuke is made with chirimen red shiso, a specialty of Ohara.

SHIBAZUKE KIZAMI
117g
$8.50

NUKAZUKE DAIKON
275g
$8.90

HAMAMATSU SPECIALITIES

浜松名物

Hamamatsu is Shizuoka Prefecture's largest city. Surrounded by diverse natural landscapes, it is home to various scenic spots. Specialities from the area include mandarin oranges and seafood, especially eels.

EBISEN
Unagi Kabayaki
1 pc
$17.90

YAMATOMO FARM
Harunono Cha (Green Tea)
110g
$9.90

HIDAMARI
Mikan Juice
180ml
$6.90 each

HIDAMARI
Mikan Juice
720ml
$19.90

