Edo Fair

Welcome to the Edo period, the final period of traditional Japan from 400 years ago.

Aside from the ever popular oden and sukiyaki, renowned delicacies like Eel, Soba and Tempura from the Edo period will also be showcased by historical brands from the Nihonbashi and Tsukiji castle towns.

全 新橋 玉木屋
SINCE 1782

TAMAKIYA

Established in 1782, Tamakiya's founder was inspired by the preserved food made from small fish at Tsukuda Island. Tamakiya's unique method to produce the perfect Edo tsukudani was then developed and is since known to be the originator of tsukudani production.

TSUKIJI UNAGI SHOKUDO NEW

An eel specialty restaurant located at the outer area of Tsukiji Market in Tokyo. Representing eel delicacies for this Edo Fair, their Unagi Bento is a bestseller that can be easily enjoyed at home and ready to eat anytime.

味の伝承

HAMATO

Hamato's range of oden is made from a wide variety of carefully selected ingredients to ensure that the real taste of oden can be enjoyed to the fullest. The natural flavour of fresh fish paste without the use of seasoning, and the traditional techniques used by meticulous skilled artisans, result in rich and deep-flavoured oden.
