Based on true events and the book Mustang Miracle by Humberto G. Garcia, this film follows JB Peña who gets rejected from his dream country club due to his skin colour. His world soon collides with five young Mexican-American caddies who teach themselves to play golf and hand build their own course in the Texas desert. Inspired, he convinces them to start their own high school golf team.

Starring Dennis Quaid, this story of passion, resilience, and triumph is a must-see celebration of the human spirit.
