First time in Singapore, this confectionery shop located in Aichi Prefecture has been in business since 1968 and specializes in Japanese treats

KUZUBAR is a Japanese treat made from kuzu, a common ingredient in Japanese sweets. It is served frozen, like ice cream, but does not become liquid when it melts. Instead, it has a unique texture that changes, so you can enjoy it crispy straight out of the freezer, or thaw it for 5 minutes for a chewy texture. Both are equally delicious.
